Agency: Department of Social and Health Services, Aging and Long-Term Support Administration, WA Cares

Subject of possible rule making: The Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) is creating rules in a new chapter in title 388 WAC for the Long-Term Services and Supports Trust Program (WA Cares). This rulemaking will address appeals of department decisions by providers, and other related rules as appropriate.

Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject: RCW 50B.04.020(3)(j)

Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish: DSHS is tasked with developing and adopting rules for implementing the responsibilities outlined in RCW 50B.04.020(3) for the WA Cares program. This section of rule will address the appeal process by applicants and registered providers, criteria to be eligible for appeal, timelines, any alternative resolution options, and other topics identified as necessary for provider appeals.

Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these agencies: Employment Security Department, Health Care Authority. Coordination will occur between departments for consistent implementation of the WA Cares program under chapter 50B.04 RCW.

Process for developing new rule (check all that apply):

- Negotiated rule making
- Pilot rule making
- Agency study

Other (describe) DSHS welcomes the public to take part in developing the rules. Anyone interested should contact the staff person identified below. At a later date, DSHS will file a proposal with the Office of the Code Reviser with a notice of proposed rulemaking. A copy of the proposal will be sent to everyone on the mailing list and to anyone who requests a copy.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting:
